Numb. 4042

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 3. to Monday August 7. 1704

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, and others of the Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Bangor.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty

TO accept this our humble and hearty Acknowledgment for all Your Royal Favours to the Church of England, particularly for Your late Noble Gift of the Revenue of Tenths, and Firſt Fruits, to Improve the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy.

As Your Majeſty has in this exceeded the Munificence of any of Your Royal Predeceſſors, ſo we doubt not but all thoſe in the Nation, who love our Church and Religion, have a juſt Senſe of Your Majeſty's Piety in it: The Clergy have reaſon, above others, to be very ſenſible of this great Favour, as well for the Honour Your Majeſty has been pleaſed by this to do to our Profeſſion, as for the Relief intended to our Poor Brethren, of which there is a great number in this Dioceſe, who ſtand in need of Your Royal Bounty.

We, on our Parts, humbly beg leave to Aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall make it our Care to return this, and all other Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's Government, with our utmoſt Duty and Gratitude; eſpecially, we ſhall daily pray, That God would Bleſs Your Majeſty's Perſon, and all Your Glorious Deſigns, for the good of this Church and Kingdom; that he would give You Succeſs in this dangerous War with the Enemies of Your Crown and our Religion, that You may be long an Honour to both of them in Your own Perſon, and at laſt tranſmit both down to Poſterity in the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

From the Camp at Eſtremos, July 20. N. S. We have received the Confirmation, that Caſtel de Vide Capitulated on the 25th paſt; The Portugueſe Governour having Surrendred the Town, Colonel Huſſey with Lieutenant-General Stewart's Regiment under his Command, retired into the Caſtle, but for want of the Proviſion and Ammunition that were neceſſary for them, were ſoon obliged to Surrender themſelves Priſoners of War, after they had done all that could be expected from Men of undaunted Courage and Reſolution. Seven or eight Soldiers of that Regiment having made their eſcape out of the Enemies hands, came hither about a Fortnight ago, who report, That during the whole Siege they had but 5 or 6 Men wounded, and not one Officer or Soldier of the whole Regiment killed. Colonel Huſſey, and ſeveral of the Officers that were with him, are ſince come to this Place, who had their Liberty granted them upon Parole. All the Horſe and Dragoons which lay in this Town, and in the Neighbourhood, are marched towards Elvas on ſome Deſign which is kept ſecret, but is believed to be the Intercepting of ſome of the Enemies Troops which are marching into Quarters of Refreſhment. The Engliſh Regiments of Foot in this Camp are ordered into Quarters, Brigadier Gen. Brudenel's Regiment marched out the 17th inſtant to Arroyolas the Place aſſigned them; the other five Regiments are to be Reviewed to morrow Morning, and four of them are to march in the Evening, the Earl of Portmore's to Portel, the Earl of Barrimore's to Vimieiro, the Lord Mountjoy's to Avis, and Colonel Duncanſon's to Redondo: Colonel Blood's Regiment is to remain Quartered in this Town. Montemore is the Place appointed for the Quarters of the Horſe and Dragoons. His Grace the Duke of Schomberg being very much Indiſpoſed with the Gout, is gone to Villa Viçoſa for the Benefit of the Air. The Earl of Portmore intends to ſet out to morrow Morning for Lisbon. The Conde de San Vicente is lately come to this Place, the King of Portugal having appointed him to be Aſſiſtant-Governor of this Province.

Lisbon, July 23. N. S. The Heat of the Weather obliging the Armies on both ſides to quit the Field, and the Enemy not thinking themſelves ſafe in the Places they were poſſeſſed of on our Frontier, they are all retired into the Spaniſh Territories. Our Foot are

alſo